BOOKS NOW READY.

MR. HEPWORTH DIXON'S NEW WORK.

In 2 vols. demy 8vo, cloth extra, price 30s.

WHITE CONQUEST.

"The best-written, most instructive, and most entertaining book that Mr. Dixon has published since 'New America.'—Athenaeum. 'White Conquest' is no whit inferior to the author's other writings; indeed, in some respects, it may be said to be superior. It has all the old brilliancy of description, the same sense of humour, and the wonderful accumulation of facts, historical and otherwise, to which Mr. Hepworth Dixon has accustomed his admirers; and besides these merits the volumes acquire an additional charm from the fact that they deal with romantic and comparatively unknown regions; and a special value, because they deal with the gravest of modern social problems."—Morning Post.

MRS. MACQUOID'S NEW BOOK.

Crown 8vo, cloth extra, with Illustrations, price 6s.

The EVIL EYE; and other Stories.

By KATHARINE S. MACQUOID, Author of "Patty."
With Eight full-page Illustrations by THOMAS R. MACQUOID and PERCY MACQUOID.

"There are few readers who would not rather take up this book of Mrs. Macquoid's than almost any novel current at the time. It has a healthy breeziness about it; you are amused and informed at the same time. It shows great fertility of imagination, great sympathy with Norman home-life, and perfect acquaintance with the manners of the Norman peasantry. Some of the stories have been tragic interest, others are more playful and humorous—all are good in a high degree."—Scotsman.

THACKERAY'S SKETCHES.

Now ready, 8vo, cloth gilt, 15s. 6d.

THACKERAYANA:

NOTES AND ANECDOTES.

Illustrated by a profusion of Sketches and Five Coloured Plates in Facsimile from the Originals.

by WILLIAM MAKEPEACE THACKERAY.

"An exceedingly curious and valuable volume, the diverting pages of which are adorned by some six hundred engraved facsimiles of the little caricature sketches which the illustrious author of 'Vanity Fair' was perpetually scribbling in the margins of books, and on every scrap of paper which came in his way, and which these eyes have witnessed him scribbling scores of times."—GEORGE AUGUSTUS SALA.

"Any one who would know the extraordinary fertility of Thackeray's genius in the way of comic pictorial art should look over the volume entitled 'Thackerayana.' Some of the sketches in this volume are so excellent as to create some wonder why Thackeray was not still more successful in the same walk. Thackeray saw a great deal of the world, and he seized the salient points of nationality with infinite drollery and truth. Many of the sketches remind us of the strange pictorial puns with which Thomas Hood used to amuse the town in days when Thackeray was still quite young. But the author of 'Vanity Fair' had a more artistic sense than the admirable poet and humorist to whom we have alluded. As a draughtsman, he had more skill, more varied power, more grace, and a wider knowledge of character."—Daily News.

"The book is light and yet substantial. It has that Thackerayan twang about it which is eminently satisfying to the mind, and at the same time thoroughly amusing. The book is made up of sketches by Thackeray, drawn at various times. It would be difficult to imagine anything more humorous than these; they seem to cast a new light upon old works, and to bring out more strongly that which is humorous in them. Most of these little sketches are intensely funny. Good service has been done by the publication of this volume. It seems to reveal even greater possibilities in Thackeray's character than most of his previously published works have done."—Scotsman.

"The world would lose sight altogether of one important side of Thackeray's many-sided genius if it failed to study him as a draughtsman no less than as an essayist and novelist. And here in 'Thackerayana' is the very material from which to form the truest estimate of his powers. Thackeray, according to the rules of art, was but an indifferent sketcher. But in his own way, and as the illustrator of his own swift thoughts by a few pencil strokes hardly less swift, Thackeray was worth a dozen better draughtsmen—and it is some of this work of his we get here; little marginal comments on his own or others' writings—such the embodiment in grotesque outline of some bit of criticism and humour. The letterpress too—the running comments on Thackeray's life-history, the extracts that gave birth to the illustrations, often as racy as the sketches themselves—very cleverly put together."—Graphic.

EDWARD STANFORD,

55 CHARING CROSS, LONDON, S.W.

(REMOVED FROM 6, 7, AND 8 CHARING CROSS.)

This new and original work exhibits the Empires and other States of the Oriental world with a stricter regard to their actual boundaries and divisions than any other publication has yet attempted. Although the size of the Map extends to the limits of convenience, its scale of 110 miles to an inch serves to show how inadequate a small Map must be for the representation of so large an area.

THE EXAMINER

of Saturday, November 6, contains a Review of

AUGUSTE VACQUERIE'S "AUJOURD'HUI ET DEMAIN"

BY Mr. SWINBURNE.

"Mr. Swinburne has been writing a review of Auguste Vacquerie's new work of political subject-matter, 'Aujourd'hui et Demain.' The reviewer takes up in a bantering spirit the Platonic theme of the incompetence of poets to handle any practical or national question (Vacquerie being himself a powerful dramatic and lyrical poet), and suggests that if the bad politicians are actually or potentially the good poets, the prospects of poetry at the present day ought to be flourishing indeed."—ACADEMY, October 30.

"It is not often that the gifts and acquirements necessary to the composition of so masterly and exhaustive a treatise as the present are united in the same person."—Fall Mail Gazette.

"We give a hearty welcome to this learned and able work.... The masterly examination of the evidences for the antiquity of the Christian Scriptures in these volumes, so far as we know, is an unparalleled specimen in the English language."—Spectator.

THE DIALOGUES OF PLATO.

TRANSLATED into ENGLISH,

With ANALYSES and INTRODUCTIONS,

By B. JOWETT, M.A.,

Master of Balliol College, and Regius Professor of Greek in the University of Oxford.

"With regard to the translation itself, we consider it nearly perfect. Never, certainly, has Plato appeared in an English rendering which more closely and more happily represents the original. The language is pure, and the style nervous and idiomatic. Nor while rendering the original has Professor Jowett presented his readers with a faithful version and nothing more. In his introductions he has done everything that could be done to make Plato intelligible to the English reader." Times.

"Long study and lively sympathy seem to have given him the power of taking in Plato's thoughts and throwing them out again, Anglicised in form but unchanged in substance. He does not simply put an English word for a Greek one, but says in English what Plato had said in Greek, as if he were an interpreter who turned and gave us the meaning of each sentence as it fell from the philosopher's lips. Thus the exquisite lightness and naturalness on which the effect of the Platonic dialogue depends is preserved; and we seem, as in the original, to be having a conversation rather than reading a treatise." Pall Mall Gazette.

INDEX to PLATO. Compiled for the Second Edition of Professor Jowett's Translation, by EVELYN ABBOTT, M.A. 8vo, 2s. 6d. [Just ready.]

A COMPLETE COLLECTION of the PROTESTS of the LORDS, from 1624 to 1874, with Historical Introductions. Edited, from the Journals of the Lords, by J. E. THOROLD ROGERS. 3 vols. 8vo, 42s. [This day.]

"That these volumes are full of the most varied interest in connexion with our Parliamentary history need hardly be repeated. Mr. Rogers has done his best by means of a brief preliminary digest, succinct introductory notices to each protest, and ample indices, to facilitate the perusal of his vast collection. It can hardly fail to be usefully examined from more than one point of view, and will furnish entertainment and instruction to the student of character as well as to the historical reader."—Saturday Review.

SPAIN.

ILLUSTRATED BY GUSTAVE DORÉ.

Text by the Baron CH. D'AVILLIER.

Imperial 4to, elaborately bound in cloth, gilt extra, gilt edges. Price 34. 3s. [Now ready.]

N.B.—This work is enriched by about 120 full-page Illustrations, and 120 half-size and smaller ones, all from Drawings taken on the spot by the celebrated Artist.

The Athenaeum says:—"Having already reviewed the book and the designs when they appeared in France, it is needless for us to do more now than say that the lively and readable narrative has been translated with spirit, and the abundant incidents and anecdotes lose little or nothing in their new dress. The hundreds of illustrations are practically as good in the résumé as they were in the first instance. Altogether the volume is likely to be one of the most attractive of the gift-books of the season."

From the Globe.—"This magnificent volume is written by one who knows Spain well. Even, however, if his story were far less interesting, the work would be highly prized by a considerable public on account of the illustrations. These are in Doré's well-known style, and represent almost every phase of life that would strike a traveller on his way through the country."

E. V. B. BEAUTY and the BEAST. An Old Tale re-told, with pictures. By E. V. B. Demy 4to, cloth extra. Novel binding. Ten Illustrations in Colours, in the same style as those in the First Edition of "Story without an End." Price 12s. 6d. [Ready.]

"This may be said to be one of the first to appear of the gift-books of the season. The Hon. Mrs. Boyle, in the illustrations not less than in her prose, maintains the well-won honours of the initials of her three names. To the old story she has imparted a new charm. The illustrations are, on the whole good examples of the skill of the lady to whom we owe so many such sweet and delicate pictures."

From the Athenaeum.—"The pictures are admirable, and will delight every one lucky enough to receive the book as a Christmas gift."—Globe. "Must be much sought after very soon when Christmas gifts are in demand."—Nonconformist.

HOW TO SELECT AN OFFICE for LIFE ASSURANCE.

Extract from Board of Trade's Report, July 2, 1874.

"Taking Insurance business as it exists in this country, the Public cannot be misled if, when seeking an Office in which to effect an Insurance, they select one which transacts its business at a small percentage of working cost, and does not anticipate its profits."

THESE TESTS ARE ENTIRELY FULFILLED BY THE ROYAL INSURANCE COMPANY,

the Report itself showing that of all the English Provincial Offices and all the Scotch Offices, the Royal's Ratio of Expenses to its Premium Income is the Lowest, and the Company have never anticipated a Single Shilling of Profit.

Extract from "The Times" of July 24, 1874.

"On the whole, it would be safe for the Father of a Family, contemplating the Insurance of his Life, to select one of the Offices with a Large Life Fund, a Small Expenditure on Management, and a Rate of Interest ranging from 4·2 to 4·5 per cent."

"THE ROYAL"

ENTIRELY MEETS THE WHOLE OF THESE REQUIREMENTS.

Its Life Fund is close upon Two Millions Sterling; its Expenses are Lower than those of any other English Provincial Office, and of any Scotch Office; and its rate of Interest is 4·4 per cent.

LIFE FUNDS	£1,761,523
GENERAL RESERVE	£594,434
PAID-UP CAPITAL	£289,545

"We have examined and counted every Security, and have found all correct and in perfect order, and that the present aggregate market value is in excess of the amounts in the Balance-sheet."—From Auditors' Report, July 17, 1874.

"As evidence of the care exercised in the Investment of the Life Funds, it may be mentioned that they have never been reduced a single penny by bad or doubtful securities."—From Chairman's Speech at Annual Meeting, August 7, 1874.

EPPS'S COCOA.

"By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-selected cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast tables with a delicately flavoured beverage which may save us many heavy doctor's bills. It is by the judicious use of such articles of diet that a constitution may be gradually built up until strong enough to resist every tendency to disease. Hundreds of subtle maladies are floating around us ready to attack wherever there is a weak point. We may escape many a fatal shaft by keeping ourselves well fortified with pure blood and a properly nourished frame."—See article in the Civil Service Gazette.

GRAVENHURST; or, Thoughts on Good and Evil. Second Edition. AND KNOWING and FEELING;
a Contribution to Psychology. By WILLIAM SMITH, Author of "Thornedale." With a Memoir of the Author and Portrait.

"We think it (the biography) ought to be published to the whole world, because otherwise we do not see how the 'inner circle' of William Smith's friends could be reached. All appreciative readers of 'Thornedale'—and the readers of that book are scattered round the planet—had, in a sense, a claim to be reckoned among the author's friends, for they knew more about the beautiful, subtle, lovable qualities of his mind than could have been discovered in countless conversations of the kind that are possible in this busy age."—Scotsman.

"The character thus revealed is one of such singular beauty as to have well deserved perpetuation, even though the possessor had exerted no influence on the course of English philosophical speculation, or ever enriched our literature with anything so exquisite as the opening of 'Thornedale.'"—Examiner.

In Two Volumes, royal 8vo, cloth boards, 42s.

THE BALLAD LITERATURE AND POPULAR MUSIC OF THE OLDEN TIME:

A COLLECTION OF THE OLD SONGS, BALLADS, AND DANCE TUNES WHICH CONSTITUTE THE NATIONAL MUSIC OF ENGLAND; ARRANGED CHRONOLOGICALLY
WITH REMARKS AND ANECDOTES, AND PRECEDED BY SKETCHES OF THE EARLY STATE OF MUSIC, AND OF THE AMUSEMENTS
ASSOCIATED WITH IT IN ENGLAND DURING THE VARIOUS REIGNS.

By W. CHAPPELL, F.S.A.

The present Work, indispensable to all who are interested in the Popular Literature of England, is the result of many years' careful research among MSS., Black-Letter Books, and the numerous ephemeral Publications of the Sixteenth, Seventeenth, and the early part of the Eighteenth Century. The various Ballad collections, such as the Pepys, the Roxburghe, the Bagford, the Douce, the Rawlinson, &c., have been laid under contribution; whilst the Garlands collected by Pepys, Ashmole, Wood, Luttrell, &c., have furnished considerable matter in illustration of the subject. The old Dramatists have been carefully gleaned for notices of Old Songs and Ballads, and every available source likely to enrich the Work has been examined and quoted. Thus, the book is not a mere collection of Old English Tunes, but an account, Popular and Literary, of hundreds of our Old Ballads; in many cases giving entire Ballads for the first time in an accessible shape. The Two Volumes contain upwards of Eight Hundred Pages, with Facsimiles from old MSS. and Printed Books.

OLD ENGLISH DITTIES.

All the Favourite Songs selected from "Popular Music of the Olden Time," with Symphonies and Accompaniments for the Pianoforte by G. A. MACFARREN the long Ballads compressed, and in some cases new words written, by JOHN OXENFORD.

Large Folio Edition, printed from Engraved Plates, cloth, 21s. Small-Type Edition, complete, cloth, 10s. 6d.; or, half-bound in morocco, 15s. The above Work is also divided into Thirteen Parts, full music size, each Part containing Twelve Songs, 6s.

N.B.—All the most favourite of the Old English Ditties are also published separately, from Engraved Plates, Large Folio Size, each 1s.
